- 5.1. No member shall use objectionable language or be guilty of any unbecoming conduct at any meeting

- 5.2. Any member who, in the opinion of the Chairperson of the meeting, is guilty of objectionable language or unbecoming conduct at any meeting, may be called upon by the Chairperson to retract and apologise
- 5.3. Where a member refuses to retract and apologise when called upon to do so by the Chairperson of the meeting, the Chairperson may exclude the member from further participation in the meeting and order the member to withdraw from the meeting.
- 5.4. Notwithstanding any apology or retraction, the Management Committee may take disciplinary action against any member who breaches By-law 5.1.

6. RULES OF DEBATE

6.1. General

- 6.1.1. The under mentioned By-laws shall apply to the conduct of all meetings of the Association, including the Annual General Meeting, Special General Meeting, Management Committee Meetings, Executive Committee Meetings and meetings of sub-committees.

6.2. Chairperson's Authority

- 6.2.1. Whenever the Chairperson rises during debate the member then speaking shall be silent and resume her or his seat
- 6.2.2. The Chairperson may call a member to order. If such member persists in being disorderly, he or she may order such member to withdraw from the meeting.

6.3. Debate

- 6.3.1. Any member desiring to speak shall gain recognition from the Chairperson
- 6.3.2. If two or more members seek recognition to speak at the one time, the Chairperson shall decide who is entitled to priority
- 6.3.3. The meeting may decide that a particular member shall or shall not be heard, provided that a motion of this nature shall not be debated
- 6.3.4. No member shall interrupt another while speaking except to raise a point of order
- 6.3.5. No speaker shall digress from the subject under discussion
- 6.3.6. During the debate a member may raise a point of order whereupon the member then speaking shall resume her or his seat until the point of order has been decided by the Chairperson
- 6.3.7. It shall be competent for any member to move a motion of dissent from the Chairperson's ruling. The mover of the motion of dissent shall concisely state her or his point. The mover and Chairperson only may speak to the motion
- 6.3.8. At any time during the debate, a member, without having a seconder, may move the motion "that the question be now put" provided the chairperson is satisfied that reasonable time for debate of the original motion has been allowed, The motion "that the question be now put" will be voted upon without debate
- 6.3.9. The motion may be applied to an amendment, in which case it is the amendment which is immediately put to the vote. It shall not be competent for the mover, seconder or any other member who has spoken to the original motion or amendment to move "that the question now be put".
- 6.3.10. If a motion "that the question be now put" is carried, the original motion will be put to the vote without further debate except that the mover shall have right of reply, if lost, the debate may proceed
- 6.3.11. A member may move the adjournment of the debate to a subsequent meeting. If the motion for adjournment is lost, the mover thereof shall not be allowed to speak again on the question under debate. If carried, the mover shall have the right of resuming the debate at the ensuing meeting and the mover of the original motion shall have the right of reply

6.4. Motions and Amendments

- 6.4.1. Any member proposing a motion or an amendment shall state its nature before addressing the meeting thereon
- 6.4.2. The mover of a motion shall not occupy more than ten minutes nor any other speaker more than five minutes; provided that the meeting may, by resolution without debate, grant an extension of time to any speaker
- 6.4.3. No member may speak more than once to a motion except with the Chairperson's permission, in explanation or reply, or to ask a question provided that he or she may speak again on any amendment to the motion
- 6.4.4. The mover of a motion may reply at the end of the debate
- 6.4.5. The mover of an original motion must get the consent of his or her seconder, and the approval of the meeting, before making an alteration to the wording of his or her motion
- 6.4.6. Any member other than as provided in 6.4.7 may move an amendment to a motion, provided it is not a direct negative of the motion proposed to be amended
- 6.4.7. The mover or seconder of a motion may not move or second an amendment to it but may speak on any such amendment and vote in favour of or against it
- 6.4.8. A member may vote or second one amendment only to each motion but may speak on amendments moved by others
- 6.4.9. An amendment having been moved, it shall not be competent to move any further amendment, provided that notice may be given of intention to move a further amendment when the previous amendment has been determined. Only one amendment can be considered at any one time
- 6.4.10. If there is an indication of more than one amendment to be brought forward the mover of the original motion may elect to reply at the end of the debate on the first amendment
- 6.4.11. The mover of an amendment has not right of reply
- 6.4.12. A member who formally seconds a motion or amendment without speaking may speak in support during the subsequent debate
- 6.4.13. Amendments shall be put to the meeting before the motion is put and shall be committed to the meeting in the order in which they are received
- 6.4.14. When an amendment is carried the motion as amended becomes the motion before the meeting
- 6.4.15. Motions and amendments can be withdrawn only when a majority of those present at the meeting consent. A motion for withdrawal is open to debate, which, however, must be confined to the matter of withdrawal
- 6.4.16. If, after a motion has been determined, it is considered in the general interest that the matter shall be re-opened for discussion before the termination of the same meeting, the meeting may, by unanimous vote, order its recommittal

6.5. Voting

- 6.5.1. Only Ordinary Members and Active Life Members are entitled to vote at Association meetings
- 6.5.2. Voting shall be by a show of hands, or, at the discretion of the Chairperson or at the request of any member, by secret ballot
- 6.5.3. Any member, supported by not less than three others, may call for a division, in which case members shall move to the right or left of the Chairperson, as directed by her or him

6.5.4. In the event of a division any member declining to vote shall elect to retire behind the Chairperson or have her or his vote counted in the negative

6.5.5. The Chairperson may appoint tellers to assist her or him in counting a vote

7. MEMBERS
